

IMPACT

Since 2005, the Pennsylvania Animal Response Team has:

- Established and managed 50 active county programs, providing coverage for all 67 counties.
- Managed over 1,600 volunteers.
- Opened dozens of emergency shelters saving thousands of lives.

Keeping your pet safe

Make a disaster kit for your pets:

1. Three days supply of food and water
2. Licensing information
3. Veterinary records and medications
4. A picture of you with the animals in case you get separated
5. Collar/leash/carrier
6. A toy, blanket, or comfort item
7. Treats

OUR WORK

Pennsylvania Animal Response Team

Pennsylvania is no stranger to natural disasters and the impact on residents and the economy. Animals large and small are particularly vulnerable because they rely on us for help.

The number one reason people refuse to evacuate their homes during an emergency is because they don't want to leave their pet behind.

Thanks to state and federal law, we must be allowed to evacuate with our pets and Pennsylvania relies on the PA Animal Response Team to make that happen.

HOW TO VOLUNTEER

Want to volunteer to make a difference in the lives of animals in your community?

Information and volunteer sign up is available at www.PaAnimalResponse.org/Volunteer.

When you sign up, you will be contacted by your local county coordinator and can get started right away with our free training to become an animal emergency responder.
